Hailed by Opera News as “delightful,” soprano Ashley Bell started as a member of the Metropolitan Opera Children’s Chorus and has since performed as a soloist in the United States, Italy, Spain, France and Russia. Most recently she made her debut with ABAO Bilbao Opera as Fiordiligi in Così fan tutte and sang Cio Cio San in Madama Butterfly with both Boheme Opera New Jersey & Daytona Beach Symphony Society. In 2022, she made her debut with Seville’s Teatro Maestranza as Violetta in La Traviata, joined ABAO Bilbao Opera, covering roles in La Voix Humaine & Zemlinsky’s Eine Florentische Tragödie and originated the title role in the world premiere of Pedro Halffter’s opera Klara. Other 2022 engagements included Mimí in La Bohème with California’s Opera Modesto, Violetta in La Traviata in La Rioja, Spain & Soprano Soloist in Beethoven’s 9th Symphony with both Orquesta Sinfonica de Madrid and in the Festival de Villafranca del Bierzo. Last year, as in-person performances resumed, she sang one of her signature roles, Elle, in a critically-acclaimed production of La voix humaine both at Spain’s Rioja Forum & Bay Street Theatre. During the pandemic, Ashley produced & starred in documentary film Rival Queens featuring music from Maria Stuarda, which has won 20 awards in international film festivals including Best Documentary at Tokyo Film Festival.

In recent seasons, she made her Carnegie Hall debut as soprano soloist in Hadyn’s “Nelson” Mass and Schubert’s Mass in C with MidAmerica Productions, debuted as Cio-Cio-San in Madama Butterfly with California’s Townsend Opera, sang Mimí in La bohème with both Mississippi Opera and Natchez Festival, sang Donna Anna in sold-out performances at Bay Street Theatre, and debuted with New York City Opera as a principal artist in L'amore dei tre re. Other notable performances have included her debut as Gilda in Rigoletto with New Jersey Verismo Opera, Anna in Lorelei with Teatro Grattacielo, productions of Madama Butterfly and Dialogues of the Carmelites with Sarasota Opera, Fiordiligi in Così fan tutte and Donna Anna in Don Giovanni with Orchestra Filarmonica di Roma, Norina in Don Pasquale in Logroño, Spain, Violetta in La traviata with Mid-Atlantic Opera, Isabella Colbran in the premiere of Discovering Mrs. Rossini at the Sheen Center in NYC, and Musetta at the National Opera Center.

Ms. Bell’s other projects have included the lead in Serrano’s zarzuela La Dolorosa with Rioja Lirica, soprano soloist in the Italian Cultural Institute & Basilica of St. Patrick Old Cathedral’s commemoration of the 175th Anniversary of Lorenzo da Ponte, Dorothée in the U.S. premiere of Offenbach’s La Bonne d’Enfant with Salome Chamber Orchestra, and Molpe in Choreo Teatro’s world premiere of Odyssey at the 92nd Street Y.

Ms. Bell is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Yale University & speaks five languages fluently. She is a recipient of Yale’s Browne Irish Performing Arts Award & a Scholarship Award at the Crested Butte Music Festival. 2023 engagements include Klara in Teatro Perez Galdos, Gran Canaria and Violetta in La Traviata in Villafranca del Bierzo.

REVIEWS:

Elle in La voix humaine at Rioja Forum, Spain

"The soprano Ashley Bell may well have been the person for whom this opera was written, for her brilliant suitability to the intense vocalism that Poulenc demands, with a large voice, dark in her low notes and shimmering in her upper register, with a powerful and overwhelming middle voice and furthermore with world class acting that ignited her entire performance with expressiveness. You might think that an opera with just one female character speaking on the phone with the lover who has left her would be boring, but you have to see how well it works in the hands of a powerful singer and actress like Ashley Bell: it will take your breath away." - Eduardo Aisa, *La Rioja

Cio Cio San in Madama Butterfly with Mid-Atlantic Opera

“Soprano Ashley Bell wore the role of Cio-Cio-San as well as the kimono and tabi she sported. The intensity of her “Un bel di” was shattering and she brought every skill in her armamentarium to bear on her delivery. The remainder of her performance was marked by a bright clear tone, excellent phrasing, and a wide palette of colors. She convinced us as a naive and hopeful 15-year-old, a deluded bride, an angry woman when challenged, and a resolute and noble figure who refuses to live without honor.” - Meche Kroop, Voce di Meche

Musetta in La bohème at the National Opera Center

Ashley Bell was delightful as Musetta. Of all the singers, she was the most fully off-book, allowing her to devote more energy to the acting dimension of her role. She was charmingly coquettish in the “Quando me’n vo” (aka Musetta’s waltz), and empathetically supportive in Act IV’s conclusion. - Arlo McKinnon, *Opera News

Norina in Don Pasquale with Rioja Lirica in Logroño, Spain

The American soprano Ashley Bell was unstoppable in her brilliant singing and proved herself a true “stage animal” with her hilarious interpretation of the two-sided character of Norina/Sofronia.”. - Eduardo Aisa, *La Rioja

Concert at Old St. Patrick’s Cathedral, New York City

"Ashley Bell had wonderful technique...Her voice was a glove-like fit for Entrada de Cecilia Valdes. Here, every facet of her voice & her magnificently coquettish acting brought a complete performance to fruition" . – Greg Moomjy, MV Daily
